

Problem Solving Breakout

What are problems you and your company are facing?

Main Goals

- Learn from your colleagues
- Determine if PCMI as an organization can support you with these issues

Problem Solving Breakout

Based on an anonymous survey sent to PCMI members, below are problems that were identified:

- Technical Training for Employees
- Space
- Generational Transition within the Workplace
- Economic Outlook

Problem Solving Breakout

Next Steps:

- We will break the room up into four areas.
- Based on the topic you are interested in, you will go to that respective area
- Elect a member of the group to be the spokesperson, and report ideas at the end of the breakout session
- There will be 20-minutes for group discussion, followed by 15-minutes at the end for groups to report back.

Problem Solving Breakout

Please Breakout into Groups Based on Topic of Interest...

Front of Room/Stage
Economic Outlook	Space
Technical Training for Employees	Generational Transition within the Workplace
Back of Room

Problem Solving Breakout

You Now Have 20-minutes for Discussion and Brainstorming

Front of Room/Stage
Economic Outlook	Space
Technical Training for Employees	Generational Transition within the Workplace
Back of Room

Problem Solving Breakout

Reporting Out

Question: What are problems you and your company are facing?

- Generational Transition within the Workplace
- Technical Training for Employees
- Economic Outlook
- Space